$15.00 per run (Open will be $17 to cover $2 sanctioning fees for USBCHA)– includes BCSDA stock insurance, coffee, lunch and a Bonfire!

No prize money – ribbons to third in each class – except Pre Comp.

Prize to overall series winners in 3 classes

Sheep will be mature hair sheep. Obstacles will be set to require control and stockmanship.

Winning based on points for making obstacles and then time

RUNNING ORDER: OPEN, PRO-NOVICE, NOVICE, PRE-COMPETITION

START TIME: 9:00 a.m.

If you run a dog in Open then you cannot run a dog in Novice. Cross entering between classes will be allowed except not Novice to Open. Novice course will allow handlers to walk the course to help their dog. Pro Novice will have a short drive. Open will have a drive and possibly a shed. Pre-competition is for open handlers who want to run a young dog to give it experience in arenas and in competition but want to be able to leave the post and go out and help their young dog. Pre-competition will be judged but it is not a sanctioned class and awards will not be given.

Please pre-register via email or phone. Trial may need to be cancelled if weather is severe so call before traveling any distance.
