

Scott Glen, Alice & Anne
World Trial 2017
(written by Jenny Glen)

This will be Scott's second trip to the World Trials. He went in 2005 as the Canadian Team Captain with his dog Pleat. Scott has won the Canadian Championships 3 times and the Western Canadian Championships 8 times. He was also the first Canadian to win the USBCHA National Championships, which he has now done 4 times.

Alice is a 5 year old tri colored rough coated bitch out of Wendy Schmaltz's Gin (2010 All Around Stockdog) and Scott's Don. Alice comes from a successful line of champion dogs as her grandmother, Star, was a 3 time USBCHA National Champion. Her father, Scott's Don, was a two time National Champion and this year Alice won her own National Championship making her the only 3rd generation National Champion. In addition, Alice won the USBCHA Nursery Nationals before she was 2 years old and followed that up the next year by winning the Reserve Nursery National Championship. She was also the 2015 Reserve Canadian Champion and the 2016 Western Canadian Champion. Off stock, Alice is a quiet dog with a devious nature and an evil sense of humor that will likely leave you with chewed up chapsticks and computer cords.

Anne is a 3 year old smooth coat that is bred the same way as her sister, Alice. Anne was a slow starter but Scott had the patience for her and now he says she is the most like her father Don of all his puppies and he is quite pleased with her. Anne really started to show her cool head at the 2016 Kentucky Bluegrass Classic. In the Nursery class, she just missed winning the first day because Scott admits he didn't know how to get those sheep penned. On the second and third day, they worked together and won the class and on the fourth day, when the sheep were getting more and more difficult, Anne continued to be the same even dog and kept them in line, winning again and winning the overall Nursery award at that trial. Off stock Anne looks for ways to please every person or dog she comes in contact with and you often have to tell her to quit trying so hard. She is honest in everything she does and doesn't always see the humor that her sister Alice does.
