

Ash Farm
2 Day Herding Clinic
with Dale Montgomery & Jamie Gardner

Friday 19 & Saturday 20 July, 2019
$300 for 2 day working spot. Lunch included.
$50 for audit spot per day

This clinic will be geared towards Novice and Pro Novice teams. New handler/dog teams welcome.

Novice teams will learn the basics of developing a herding partnership and general introduction to the sport of stockdog trialling.

Pro Novice teams will work on advancing their current skills and identifying areas for improvement to assist at the trial level.

Dale Montgomery is one of Canada's most revered stock dog handlers, teaching stockmanship across Saskatchewan and around North America for over 30 years. He has shown livestock producers the principles of low-stress handling for cattle and sheep, and holds many championship titles including 7 times winner of the Calgary Stampede.

Jamie Gardner owns and operates a sheep farm, grooming, boarding and training facility in Shaunavon Saskatchewan. She has been working border collies since 1995, competing in dogs sports such as flyball, agility and her main love, herding. Jamie was also a K9 officer for BC hydro and trained animals for movies and TV commercials. She also teaches K9 4h to kids in Shaunavon.

For both Dale and Jamie, working dogs is a way of life which they can't wait to share with others. They are looking forward to this opportunity to come to the island and work with new handlers, experienced handlers and their wonderful dogs.

Camping is available on site.
Location: 3231 Cameron Taggart Rd, Cobble Hill, BC. V0R 1L6

Working spots will be limited so please register early.
